

LARRY LESSER

Rubin Center Auditorium

Feb. 4, 2020 at 12:30 pm & 6 pm

Award-winning educator and songwriter Dr. Larry Lesser shares a new creative work.

Join us for two free special presentations for that day's release of SPARKS, Lesser's album of original non-liturgical songs deeply but accessibly grounded in Jewish text/values with universal lessons – all are welcome! Both events include music & conversation with the songwriter.

12:30 pm “Talmudic Tunes and Musical Midrash: A Lyrical Lecture of Learning about Judaism” Lesser shares the big picture process and meta-lessons of the album's distinctive, inspiring journey.

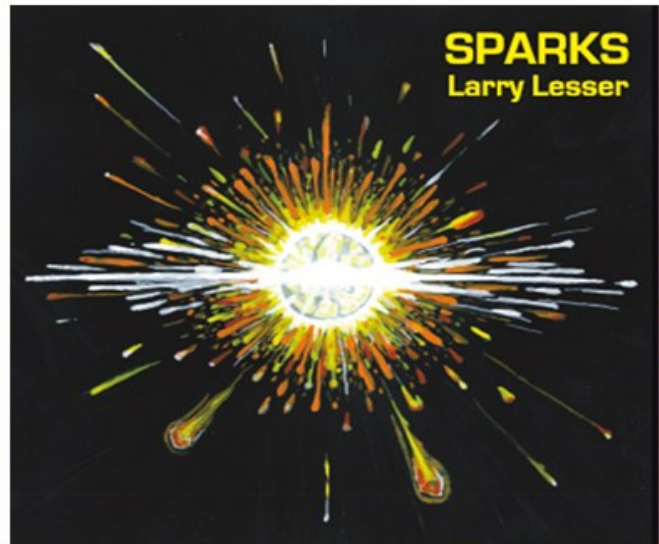

6 pm “Concert ‘n’ Conversation: Exploring Jewish Culture via Song and Text” Sharing more song-specific discussion and performance.

Event Sponsored by

“Many Jewish musicians have come along to share powerful music. Very few create and share powerful music which also inspires the listener to follow them down the deep well of Jewish knowledge like Larry does. This album is for you, no matter how you engage with Jewish tradition (or don't!)” – Rabbi Zeidman

the latest work from the songwriter of “Healing Song”

LARRY LESSER

Concert 'n' Conversation

February 23 2020, at 6:30 P.M.

Temple Mount Sinai

Join Larry and special guests for a free entertaining and educational performance and discussion celebrating this month's release of SPARKS, his album of original nonliturgical songs deeply but accessibly grounded in Jewish text/values with universal lessons – all are welcome!